MEETING CALLED

Of the Fort Henry Committee, in Charge of "Dewey Day."

THE OLD SOLDIERS PREPARING

To Take a Prominent Part in the Parade-They Invite the Veterans From Eastern Ohio and Pennsylvania to Participate - Spanish-American War Veterans to Meet Soon to Arrange to Appear in the Chairman T. M. Garvin, of the Fort Henry tablet committee, stated yesterday afternoon that a meeting of the committee would be called for next Tuesday evening, at his office, to take up the matter of arranging for the "Dewey Day" demonstration.

"There are two important matters that must be taken up at once," said Mr. Garvin. "One is the matter of de-ciding whether or not there shall be a parade, and then we must appoint a finance committee to solicit the funds needed to defray the expenses of the affair, which I believe will reach at least $1,000. I am in favor of providing for a parade, as this will be probably the best way in which the many thousands of visitors may be enabled to see the admiral, for of course, he would review the parade." As the Intelligencer has already pointed out, there is an almost unanimous sentiment in favor of a street demonstration, and the committee cannot afto ignore this sentiment. night the committee of Holliday Post, composed of Messrs, Richard Robertson, H. J. Felber, Thomas G. Britt, F. H. Crago and Caleb Sylvis, met at County Clerk Robertson's office, and decided to form a brigade in the parade, to be made up of veterans of the civil war. Invitations, it was agreed, would be sent to all the G. A. R. posts in this section of West Virginia, eastern Ohlo and western Pennsylvania, asking them to appoint representatives on the Wheeling committee, and to participate with the local veterans in the parade. Another meeting of the committee will be held next Tuesday evening. Sergeant G. C. Jansen, of the Wheeling company of the late Fourth Immunes, is at the head of a movement to bring about participation in the par-ade by this company and by the Wheeling and Moundsville companies of the First and Second West Virginia Volunteers. Said he last night; Through the kindness of Mayor

Sweeney, the police court room is at our disposal for the purpose of holding a meeting. I take the liberty of issuing a call to the Immunes and members of the First and Second West Virginia regiments and any other young soldiers now in our city and vicinity, to meet at the police court room on the evening of Tuesday, December 12 at 8 o'clock, At this meeting plans will be outlined officers and committeez chosen. Lieutenant Dent, of the Linsly Institute, has promised the use of thirty rifles. This number not being sufficient, we will endeavor to secure 200 from the adjutant general of West Virginia for the occasion.'

To the Public:

We endorse the initative action taken by the Wheeling Intelligencer, both in inviting Admiral Dewey to take part in the ceremonies attending the setting of the fort Energy commemorative tablet and in proceed to the commemorative tablet and in the subscription for the purpose of purchasing a suitable sword to be presented to Lieut. John S. Doddridge, U. S. N., in recognition of his services contributory to the great victory won by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay.

We suggest that the Intelligencer proceed at once to receive subscriptions to the Doddridge Sword Fund, to the amount of $500, same to be expended by the Fort Henry Tablet Committee in purchasing the sword to be presented to Lieut. Doddridge, in connection with the Fort Henry ceremonies, February 22, 1900.

PECK IS WAITING

For Developments in the Atkinson Doolittle Controversy Relative to the Disposition of Young Hatfield, Who is Still in Moundsville Jail.

Sheriff Peck, of Mingo county, is still here awaiting developments relative to the proper disposition of young Ellas Hatfield, convicted on the charge of murder and sentenced to serve twelve years in the penitentiary, but whom Warden Hawk declines to receive at the "pen," acting on instructions from the governor. The prisoner is still confined in the Moundsville jail, but will likely be brought to the Ohio county jall in this city, if the controversy does not speedily end. Warden Hawk, up to last night at 11 o'clock, had not been served with the mandamus papers to show cause before Judge Doclittle why he does not receive the prisoner The papers will likely be served to-day.

John H. Marcum, counsel for Judge Doolittle in the clash that has arisen between the judge and Governor Atkinson, espresses the opinion that governor transcended his authority when he granted Hatfield the exten sion, which has led to the clash. He takes the view that while the executive has the authority, because of the life and death emergency, to grant a re-prieve in the case of a prisoner under sentence of death, he has no power to interfere in a case such as that in hand, wherein the motion for the appeal might be acted on with equal lack of prejudice whether the prisoner is in jall or in the penitentiary.

Governor Atkinson, on the other hand, insists that the constitution as well as the statutes gives him an unqualified power to reprieve. He said he would The council committee on fire de-partment will meet this evening to open bids for the construction of the Fort Henry engine house, in the East End. Bids close this afternoon at 4:30 octook. not have used it at all even in this case, but he considered that the emergency absolutely warranted it. He stated that before he would grant the application of ex-Governor Wilson, Hatfield's attorney, for the extension, he required the stenographer to certify that the ad-ditional time in which to complete the record of the evidence was absolutely necessary. He said he acted from n The Bessle Shaw mission band, of the Stone church, Elm Grove, assisted by the Woman's Society and other bands of the church, will give a mis-sionary tea at the church, December 2, 1899, from 2 to 4 p. m. motive whatever to befriend the Hatfields, although such a motive had, because of his conection with the arres of Elias Hatfield, been imputed to him. FREER'S POSITION

Yesterday, in the circuit court, Judge Melvin, the trial of Wayt vs. Helfenbine, began before a jury. The trial was not completed, and court adjourned in the afternoon until this morning, when it will be resumed. Now Definitely Defined, and the Fight for the Nomination Will Soon Begin-Freer Will Become when it will be resumed.

Elder John M. Whitaker, of New York, a Mormon missionary, who spoke at Moundsville last night, will shortly hold a meeting in Wheeling to defend the tenets of his church. He is sent out by the church's governing body. Aggressive With the New Year.

The publication in Monday's Intelligencer of the letter written by Congressman Romeo H. Freer, of the Fourth district, to a Wheeling friend, was received with interest all over the state, and it is now generally agreed that Freer's position is definitely set-Through a typographical error the Intelligencer made Mr. Freer state that he would not become an aggressive candidate until July 1. This should have read January 1.

Some of the friends of Collector o

Internal Revenue A. B. White say it is not definitely settled that he will be a candidate for the gubernatorial nomi-nation. So far there has been no official declaration on the subject from Mr White, which is not surprising, as the campaign is still far in the future.

In Squire Rogers' court yesterday, Fred Knapp was defendant to two charges, preferred by his wife, Caroline Knapp. On a profanity charge he was fined $\foxed{1}$ and costs, and asked to give a peace bond of $100. He did neither and was committed to jail in default of payment. He will linger there a year unless he liquidates.

The death occurred yesterday morning of Mrs. William Hall, at the family residence, 54c Jacob street, after an illness that has been regarded as critical for some time, but her demise was a great shock to a wide circle of friends, nevertheless. The deceased was the mother of Rev. Father Hall, of the Cathedral, and Miss Mary Hall, of the Washington school teaching force. "Rev." Sam Jones delivered one of "Trend to the Washington school teaching force." "Rev." Sam Jones delivered one of in the selections of these distinguished men, and Belmont is in the list, having men, and Belmont is in the list, having been the home of Wilson Shannon at the time of his election. Only six of the ex-governors are living at this time—Jacob Doison Cox, Charles Foster, George H. Hoadly, Joseph R. Foraker, James E. Campbell and William McKinley. The governors have all been men of high character and several of them have achieved fame in national affairs, others in their professions, and two of them, Hayes and McKinley, became presidents. Salmon P. Chase was chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, and Joseph B. Foraker is now among the leaders of the United States, and Joseph B. Foraker is now among the leaders of the United States, and Joseph B. Foraker is now among the leaders of the United States senate. One of them, Othniel Looker, served as a private soldier in the revolutionary war and settled in Cincinnati, where he became a carpenter and joher until his election to the legislature and as president of the senate became governor, vice Return Jonathan Melgs, who resigned to become positmaster general. Ten of the governors were in the civil war of 1861-65, all in the union army or navy. James E. Campbell being the only one in the navy. Eight of the thirty-one governors have served in the United States senate. Governor elect George K. Nash will be inaugurated on January S, the anniversary of Jackson's victory at New Orleans, and the occasion will be made a gratifying one for the party and people of Ohio. been the home of Wilson Shannon at Enterprise to Resume.

John K. Weir Injured.

Wheeling people will remember John K. Weir, for many years a resident of this community and president of the nailers during their memorable strike years ago. For some time he has lived at Youngstown, Ohlo, where he became assistant superintendent of the Mahoning Iron Company, Information has reached the city that on last Friday he suffered from a serious accident. He was run down by an Erie passenger train, resulting in a fractured hip and other injuries, which may end fatally. His many friends here will regret to learn of his misfortune. The Enterprise glass works in Mar-tin's Ferry, which was built about one and one-half years ago, and operated about one year, will resume again. It about one year, will resume again. It was reported yesterday that the former proprietors and managers, Daniel and William Neuhart, will remain in charge of the plant. The plant manufactures bottles exclusively and is said to be one of the best small plants for the manufacture of this article in this vicinity.

At the Carroll Club last evening, distribution of prises for the domino tournament recently closed, was made. The prizes were distributed by Mr. W. S. Foose, president of the domino club, who made a very happy address on the fine points of spider and highly congratulated the winners of the prizes for their excellent showing. A smoker followed the prize-glying; a general good time ensued, and all members left the club-house, convinced that the tournament had been a success. Preparations are already being made for an individual contest, and the prospects are that by December 15 the next tournament will have begun.

are that by December 1s the next tournament will have begun.

The ladles of the chancel chapter of St. Luke's P. E. church gave a unique entertainment at the parish house last night, and it merited the warm appreciation bestowed. It consisted of 'shadow pictures' from Dickens' works, and a rendition of musical gems from the opera, "The Geisha." Still another feature was the famous St. Luke's popcorn bells, from the sale of which a goodly revenue resulted. The entire affair reflected credit on performers and all in any way interested.

In rendering selections from "The Geisha," and "The Mikado," the performers were: Mrs. Flora Williams, Miss Vignia Harrison, Miss Mary Paull, Miss Emma Heall, Miss Kate Wincher, Miss Bessie McGranahan, Mr. J. C. Baum and Dr. Eugene Warren. Miss Eminy Ray Pollack was a capable accompanist on the plano. The chaperones were Mrs. W. Bates Woods and Miss Alice McCabe.

The chaperones for the shadow pictures were Mesdanes Lawrence Sands, Harry Sands, W. D. McCoy, Charles N. Hancher, T. J. Danner and Miss Alice McCabe was a charming feature, and greatly enjoyed were the "shadow dances." For every number there were appropriate costuming and scenic effects.

The All Alike bowling club, of the Wheeling league, will entertain their friends this evening at Pythian castle, South Side. The members of the other teams of the league are especially invited. Myer's orchestra will play.

At the Church of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning, Mr.

Charles Kilborn and Miss Maggie Ut-termohlen were married by Rev. Father

Dr. John L. Dickey, W. E. Stone, W. H. Frank.

A farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Thomas will be tendered at the church this evening by the ladies of St. Matthew's P. E. church Sunday school. The hours will be from 8 to 10 p. m. Mrs. Thomas will leave with her husband, Rev. N. S. Thomas, this week for their new home in Philadelphia. PERSONAL NOTES.

People and Visitors.

Intelligencer readers who have accustomed themselves to looking forward with pleasure to each one of Sergeant Ernest G. Smith's letters from the Philippines, will be pleased to learn that an unusually interesting letter has been received, which will apear in next Saturday's paper. In a personal letter to the Intelligencer, Mr. Smith encloses eight "snap shots" of scenes at the front with the Seventeenth Regulars. He has made a number of these views and the entire set is to be copyrighted. "There will be some mighty interesting development here in a very short time," says the sergeant, whose letter is dated October 22, from Angeles, Luzon, "and I will keep you posted as best I can, for, although the news generalities are weeks old before my letters appear, yet interesting derialis are not cabled, and with these I try to fill my letters. I have offers from the Cosmopolitan people for my whole set of photographs, but you may use these and others without interfering in any way with other plans. My health still remains excellent and my skin is yet intact, but in these days of uncertainty sickness and 'punctures' come suddenly."
